Last Night's Telegraphic News.

The following is a synopsis of the news received by the telegraph last night:

Only the associated press may now send army news.

The 17th Illinois reached Greenville on Wednesday, in pursuit of Jeff Thompson and his army, fell upon his rear guard, killing 40 and taking 200 prisoners.

Price is said to be retreating towards Greenville, Davis county. Sigel is twenty-five miles east of him, having two days' march north, and Sturgis one day's march behind Lane. Hunter and McKinstry are moving towards Warsaw, and Pope towards Leesville. Fremont is at Poitaine de Terre river, and Ashby at Warsaw. It is the belief among the federal officers at Warsaw that Price cannot get away—that he must either fight or surrender.

The disaster at Leesburg, on Monday, is attributable to lack of transportation. There was no possible way of retreat save by swimming the Potomac, the small flat in which our troops had got over having been sunk. We have 175 wounded on our hands, 27 dead were buried on Thursday, and elsewhere about fifty were drowned in attempting to cross the river, and probably 400 or 500 are prisoners. All our forces engaged in the fight are now on the Maryland side of the Potomac. It is believed that some bad blunders were committed in connection with the battle.

Zillcoff attempted, after his second repulse, to storm the federal breastworks at Camp Wild Cat, Ky., on Monday night, but was driven back with a loss of four or five hundred. There is now a large Union force there. One Ohio and one Indiana regiment were in the fight, and since that time heavy reinforcements have arrived from Camp Dick Robinson.

Zillcoff attempted to be beyond London, Ky., and is supposed to be falling back to Cumberland Ford. There is great sickness and suffering among the rebel troops at Bowling Green, Hopkinsville, and other points in that vicinity.

All the armed vessels and transports of the naval expedition had arrived at Forts Monroe on Thursday.

The following is a partial list of the casualties in the Wisconsin Third in the late engagement at Bolivar, on the upper Potomac: Killed—Privates Lorenzo Tuttle and Henry Clemons, Company A; —Moshier, Company K; and a private from company H. Wounded—Corporal Foster, Company C, in the foot; Corporal Ross, also in the foot, and taken prisoner; private in Company C.

European dates are to the 17th inst., by the steamer City of Baltimore. Poland has been declared in a state of siege, and the public squares of Warsaw occupied by military. The Spanish cotton mills are closing for want of material.

Breckinridge has published a card announcing his intention to resign his U. S. senatorship.

The Mobile papers admit that the southern account of the affair between Colonel Wilson's regiment and the rebels on Santa Rosa Island was highly colored. They now report their loss to have been one hundred and thirty-five killed, fifty wounded, and thirty taken prisoners. They took only seven Union prisoners.

A Pensacola letter to a Georgia paper says: "A siege is momentarily expected to commence and every preparation has been made."

Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

The October number of the American Life Assurance Magazine, published in New York city, contains a very complimentary editorial notice of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin. Elizur Wright, Esq., insurance commissioner for Massachusetts, having examined the assets and liabilities of the company reported that on the first of May last, the company had "on hand $127.24 for every $100 of computed liability. But five of the nineteen companies doing business in Massachusetts show so high a per centage, and those of equal age do not at all approximate it." This is a remarkably good result for the age of the company and I cannot but congratulate it and the whole of Central North America on a commencement so auspicious." The editor of the Magazine, after quoting the above language of Mr. Wright, says:

"So says Commissioner Wright and so we say we. One remarkable feature in the management of this young western life insurance company is the economy which has been displayed by the directors since the date of its organization; every superfluous and extravagant outlay has been avoided, while they have been zealous to their agents with good substantial information on the great theory of life insurance, they have not indulged their taste and squandered the funds of the company in gaudy, showy, and costly engravings, show-cards or gilded picture books, prospectuses or readless, worthless statistics compiled for curiosity and read by none. The number of policies issued during the past year was 460, covering risks to the amount of $751,450. This is good work for a young company and argues well for its future success and prosperity."

Eastern papers and magazines are proverbially unwilling to speak favorably of western institutions, and nothing but the marked success of our Wisconsin life insurance company could have secured such a favorable notice from the leading life insurance magazine of the country. Willard Merrill, Esq., the agent in Janesville for this company, informs us that the surplus accumulations of the company now on hand amount to 40 per cent. A dividend will be declared in 1863, when the policy holders will reap the benefit of the accumulations. We are glad to know that the company is doing a good business in Janesville, for we believe it to be a sound and reliable institution.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE.—The democratic papers are boasting over a democratic victory in Pennsylvania, and congratulating their readers over the prospects of a party ascendancy. The way in which this feat was accomplished may suggest a useful hint to republicans. In democratic districts they nominated straight democrats; in districts where Lincoln had a majority last year, they organized a Union party, went in for the war and the administration, and figured in their men as Union candidates. The result is that in the lower house of the next legislature there will be a large majority of members of democratic antecedents.

THE REASON FOR IT.—The Madison Journal says:—"The Milwaukee News has had a recent accession, we hear, to its editorial force in the person of Geo. H. Paul, Esq., late of the New York News, a paper that has been suppressed for its secession sympathies." The News was bad enough before this accession to its editorial corps, and is likely to improve under its new editor.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.—The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad was sold at Cleveland Wednesday, under a foreclosure of its mortgages, by decree of court, and was bid in by Mr. Lanier, of the well known firm of New York bankers, he acting on behalf of a committee. The price paid was two million dollars. The sale was on the same day ratified by the court that issued the decree.

GALE ON LAKE HURON.—During a severe gale on Lake Huron, last Tuesday, the schooners Wm. Nelson, Flying Cloud, M. Mason, Union, J. Gray, C. Harrison, and three others names unknown, all grain laden, bound for the lower lakes, went ashore on Presque Isle—the three former likely to prove a total loss. Four tugs, with steam power, will be sent from Detroit to their assistance.

UNIFORMS FOR KENTUCKY.—Sixty thousand dollars' worth of uniforms were forwarded to Kentucky yesterday, under the care of Hon. Andrew Johnson, for the Tennessee and Kentucky regiments in Gen. Thomas' division. There are enough uniforms in the shipment to place the gallant lads in a comfortable condition.

SEVERE CUR.—The New York Tribune thinks that a European recognition of the southern confederacy would raise the price of confederate bonds to fifty or seventy-five cents per bushel!

THE ISSUE OF FORAGE.—The amount of forage issued by the government daily, for use in Washington and vicinity, is 215 tons, and of grain 180 tons.

THE "Waukesha County" and the "Forest City," both banks of Waukesha county, have made arrangements for the redemption of their circulation at Milwaukee.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST says: The secretary of the treasury has informed the committee of the associated banks here, that he has received an offer from foreign capitalists for one hundred millions of dollars at six and a half per cent. This is in answer to the proposition of the banks in regard to the seven per cent, bonds, which he is authorized to issue under act of congress. What will "Big Thunder," of Tillinghast, Va., Oct. 21st.

THE FIRST.—The first regiment will leave Milwaukee on Monday morning for Louisville. They will go from Chicago by the Cincinnati and Chicago Air Line railroad. The time to Louisville will be fourteen hours from Chicago.

THE CRANBERRY TRADE.—Although lower in price than they have been before for some years past, quite a large quantity of cranberries have been sold in our market within a few days past. On Monday, I. L. Alasbacher purchased 300 bushels at prices ranging from 80 to 95 cents per bushel.—Munson Star.

The work on the dome of the capitol at Washington has been renewed, and is pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Some of the new rooms are being frescoed, and in other respects the building is being polished up and put in order for the use of congress.

The Mobile papers admit that the southern account of the affair between Colonel Wilson's regiment and the rebels on Santa Rosa Island was highly colored. They now

The following was received this A. M.:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.

To the mayor of New York:

San Francisco to New York sends greeting, and congratulates her on the completion of the enterprise which connects the Pacific with the Atlantic. May the prosperity of both cities be increased thereby, and the projectors of this important work meet with honor and reward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.

Col. Plummer has returned with his command to Cape Girardeau.

Col. Carlin now occupies Fredericktown with the 8th regiment of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and two pieces of artillery.

Thompson and his rebel band were pursued 23 miles beyond Fredericktown, on the Greenville road, when the chase was abandoned.

They are probably at Greenville now, but they are completely demoralized and will doubtless continue their retreat.

Willard Merrill, Esq., the agent in Janesville for this company, informs us that the surplus accumulations of the company now on hand amount to 40 per cent. A dividend will be declared in 1863, when the policy holders will reap the benefit of the accumulations. We are glad to know that the company is doing a good business in Janesville, for we believe it to be a sound and reliable institution.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE.—The democratic papers are boasting over a democratic victory in Pennsylvania, and congratulating their readers over the prospects of a party ascendency. The way in which this feat was accomplished may suggest a useful hint to republicans. In democratic districts they nominated straight democrats; in districts where Lincoln had a majority last year, they organized a Union party, and went for the war and the administration, and figured in their men as Union candidates. The result is that in the lower house of the next legislature there will be a large majority of members of democratic antecedents.

THE REASON FOR IT.—The Madison Journal says:—"The Milwaukee News has had a recent accession, we hear, to its editorial force in the person of Geo. H. Paul, Esq., late of the New York News, a paper that has been suppressed for its secession sympathies." The News was bad enough before this accession to its editorial corps, and is little likely to improve under its new editor.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.—The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad was sold at Cleveland Wednesday, under a foreclosure of its mortgages, by decree of court, and was bid in by Mr. Lanier, of the well known firm of New York bankers, he acting on behalf of a committee. The price paid was two million dollars. The sale was on the same day ratified by the court that issued the decree.

GALE ON LAKE HURON.—During a severe gale on Lake Huron, last Tuesday, the schooners Wm. Nelson, Flying Cloud, M. Mason, Union, J. Gray, C. Harrison, and three others names unknown, all grain laden, bound for the lower lakes, went ashore on Presque Isle—the three former likely to prove a total loss. Four tugs, with steam pumps, will be sent from Detroit to their assistance.

UNIFORMS FOR KENTUCKY.—Sixty thousand dollars' worth of uniforms were forwarded to Kentucky yesterday, under the care of Hon. Andrew Johnson, for the Tennessee and Kentucky regiments in Gen. Thomas' division. There are enough uniforms in the shipment to place the gallant lads in a comfortable condition.

SEVERE CUR.—The New York Tribune thinks that a European recognition of the southern confederacy would raise the price of confederate bonds to fifty or seventy-five cents per bushel.

THE ISSUE OF FORAGE.—The amount of forage issued by the government daily, for use in Washington and vicinity, is 215 tons, and of grain 180 tons.

DE The "Waukesha County" and the "Forest City" both banks of Waukesha county, have made arrangements for the redemption of their circulation at Milwaukee.

THE FIRST.—The first regiment will leave Milwaukee on Monday morning for Louisville. They will go from Chicago by the Cincinnati and Chicago Air Line railroad. The time to Louisville will be fourteen hours from Chicago.

THE CRANBERRY TRADE.—Although low, in price than they have been before for some years past, quite a large quantity of cranberries have been sold in our market within a few days past. On Monday, I. A. Alasbacher purchased 300 bushels at prices ranging from 80 to 95 cents per bushel.

MAINTENANCE.—The New York Evening Post says: The secretary of the treasury has informed the committee of the associated banks here, that he has received an offer from foreign capitalists for one hundred millions of dollars at six and a half per cent. This was in answer to the proposition of the banks in regard to the seven per cent bonds, which he is authorized to issue under act of congress. What will "Big Thunder" of Printing House Square say to that?

THE WORK ON THE DOMES.—The work on the domes of the capitol at Washington has been renewed, and is pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Some of the new rooms are being frescoed, and in other respects the building is being polished up and put in order for the use of congress.

The Unfortunate Second Regiment.

EDITORS GAZETTE.—In your paper of the 11th inst., there appeared an article so misrepresenting this regiment and its officers, that a few words setting forth our exact position, seems to be demanded, that the minds of those having friends amongst us may be disabused in relation to the misfortunes and peculiar trials to which we have been subjected.

In the article referred to, after quoting from the correspondent of the Madison Journal, in which this regiment is called "unfortunate," you add "we have no disposition to recapitulate its history, it is fully known to its friends." You further remark "if there is good colonel any where to be found, he should be hunted up, and put at the head of the Wisconsin second that it may be saved from ruin."

In reply to these and other numerals allusions to the regiment, I beg leave to call attention to the fact that the complaints do not originate in this regiment.

Being among the first of the three years' volunteers mustered into the United States service, we now rank among the oldest of the volunteer regiments in the field. Consequently having been exposed to additional fatigues, to the trying march to, and retreat from Bull Run, new regiments from our own and other states, found us with faces burned, with garments torn and soiled, and with evidences of fatigue and disease, incident upon a change of climate, diet and water, to which they had not been subjected, and freely expressed both sympathy and pity for us, which extended so far as to result in naming us the "ragged second," and comparing their appearance with ours until a feeling of jealousy and ill-nature was excited.

The men composing the second regiment, volunteered not as "summer soldiers" or "sun-shine heroes," but to-day feel powder of their ragged clothes—of their tarnished equipments—of their flag all smoked, soiled, and dusty as it is—but brought honorably from the battle-field at Bull Run—than of the new uniforms and equipments, since received—or of any unearned advantages they might possibly obtain.

You call us the "unfortunate second," but why are we so? Not in that we were early in the field—not in that we shared the dangers and defeat of battle, side by side with those whose loss was greater than ours—not in that sickness has visited us with a lighter hand than most other regiments, and death has taken but one through disease, from our number—not in that we have been placed most of the time upon the very advance; and while others have been in comfortable quarters, we have bivouaced in sight of the enemy—for these to the soldier, are posts of honor. And I think if you will re-capitulate the history of the second, you will find it has rather been fortunate in being placed and kept where it could be more effectually employed in the great cause in which we are enlisted—than many designated as more fortunate, but whose good fortune consisted in being away from danger; an end more easily attained, by remaining members of the house guard.

While we all regret the misfortune under which our colonel labors, in the loss of voice, rendering it impossible for him to effectively command the regiment, we feel every confidence in his military experience, ability and integrity, and in our lieutenants and major and we are especially favored in having officers who not only command the respect and confidence, but the affections of the entire regiment. Unfortunate indeed we should consider ourselves if, from any misrepresentations, we should hear of their removal.

In relation to the Janesville company, I will only say—and I speak by authority—that there has been no time since leaving Madison when they felt in better spirits than at present. General health prevails, we are comfortably clothed and as well provided for as any in the army; and although home and our friends in the far west are very dear to us, we feel no disposition to return until the great object for which we enlisted has been attained. There is no grumbling among the men, but an increasing confidence is daily manifested in the officers, and while we know Capt. Ely has been greatly misrepresented at home, we have faith to believe he will lead his command honorably through this contest.—Since Lieut. McLean's resignation, both Capt. Ely and Lieut. Dodge have been unceasing in their efforts to promote in every way the comfort and advancement of the company, and I am happy to add, these efforts seem to be appreciated.

The second Wisconsin regiment has no cause to consider itself the "unfortunate regiment," and regrets exceedingly that friends at home consider us so. We have no complaints to make, and challenge comparison with other regiments in regard to clothing, camps, food, health, and all the comforts a soldier in the enemy's country could expect, while the general treatment of the officers to the men has been, so far as military discipline would allow, that of friends and brothers.

Adj. General Thomas has ordered that troops transported by railroad through affected parts of the country shall march on foot over bridges where a possibility exists of the cars breaking through. To this end there will be an agreement in the contract for transportation, that the trains shall be stopped to permit the troops to alight before crossing the bridge.

Last Night's Telegraphic News.

The following is a synopsis of the news received by the telegraph last night:

Only the associated press may now send army news.

The 17th Illinois reached Greenville on Wednesday, in pursuit of Jeff Thompson and his army, fell upon his rear guard, killing 40 and taking 200 prisoners.

Price is said to be retreating towards Greenville, Dade county. Sigel is twenty-five miles east of him, Lanes two days' march north, and Sturgis one day's march behind Lane. Hunter and McKinstry are moving towards Warsaw, and Poole towards Leesville. Fremont is at Pommie de Terre river, and Asboth at Warsaw. It is the belief among the federal officers at Warsaw that Price cannot get away—that he must either fight or surrender.

The disaster at Leesburg, on Monday, is attributable to lack of transportation. There was no possible way of retreat save by swimming the Potomac, the small flat in which our troops had got over having been sunk. We have 175 wounded on our hands, 27 dead were buried on Thursday, somewhere about fifty were drowned in attempting to cross the river, and probably 400 or 500 are prisoners. All our forces engaged in the fight are now on the Maryland side of the Potomac. It is believed that some bad blunders were committed in connection with the battle.

Zollicoffer attempted, after his second repulse, to storm the federal breastworks at Camp Wild Cat, Ky., on Monday night, but was driven back with a loss of four or five hundred. There is now a large Union force there. One Ohio and one Indiana regiment were in the fight, and since that time heavy reinforcements have arrived from Camp Dick Robinson.

Zollicoffer has retreated beyond London, Ky., and is supposed to be falling back to Cumberland Ford. There is great sickness and suffering among the rebel troops at Bowling Green, Hopkinsville, and other points in that vicinity.

All the armed vessels and transports of the naval expedition had arrived at Fortress Monroe on Thursday.

The following is a partial list of the casualties in the Wisconsin Third in the late engagement at Bolivar, on the upper Potomac: Killed—Privates Lorenzo Tuttle and Henry Clemens, Company A; Mosher, Company K; and a private from company H. Wounded—Corporal Foster, Company C, in the foot; Corporal Ross, also in the foot, and taken prisoner; private in Company C.

European dates are to the 17th inst., by the steamer City of Baltimore. Poland has been declared in a state of siege, and the public squares of Warsaw occupied by military. The Spanish cotton mills are closing for want of material.

Breckinridge has published a card announcing his intention to resign his U. S. senatorship.

The Mobile papers admit that the southern account of the affair between Colonel Wilson's regiment and the rebels on Santa Rosa Island was highly colored. They now report their loss to have been one hundred and thirty—fifty killed, fifty wounded, and thirty taken prisoners. They took only seven Union prisoners.

A Pensacola letter to a Georgia paper says, "A siege is momentarily expected to commence and every preparation has been made."

Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

The October number of the American Life Assurance Magazine, published in New York city, contains a very complimentary editorial notice of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin. Elizur Wright, Esq., insurance commissioner for Massachusetts, having examined the assets and liabilities of the company reported that on the first of May last, the company had "on hand $127.24 for every $100 of computed liability. But five of the nineteen companies doing business in Massachusetts show so high per cent, and those of equal age do not at all approximate it. This is a remarkably good result for the age of the company and I cannot but congratulate it and the whole of Central North America on a commencement so auspicious."

The editor of the Magazine, after quoting the above language of Mr. Wright, says:

"So says Commissioner Wright and so we say. One remarkable feature in the management of this young western life insurance company is the economy which has been displayed by the directors since the date of its organization; every superfluous and extravagant outlay has been avoided, while they have been zealous to supply their agents with good substantial information on the great theory of life insurance, they have not indulged their taste and squandered the funds of the company in gaudy, showy, and costly engravings, show-cards or gilded picture books, prospectuses or readless, worthless statistics compiled for curiosity and read by none. The number of policies issued during the past year was 460, covering risks to the amount of $75,145. This is good work for a young company and augurs well for its future success and prosperity."

Eastern papers and magazines are proverbially unwilling to speak favorably of western institutions, and nothing but the marked success of our Wisconsin life insurance company could have secured such a favorable notice from the leading life insurance magazine of the country. Willard Merrill, Esq., the agent in Janesville for this company, informs us that the surplus accumulations of the company now on hand amount to 40 per cent. A dividend will be declared in 1862, when the policy holders will reap the benefit of the accumulations. We are glad to know that the company is doing a good business in Janesville, for we believe it to be a sound and reliable institution.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE.—The democratic papers are boasting over a democratic victory in Pennsylvania, and congratulating their readers over the prospects of party ascendancy. The way in which this feat was accomplished may suggest a useful hint to republicans. In democratic districts they nominated straight democrats; in districts where Lincoln had a majority last year, they organized a Union party, went in for the war and the administration, and figured in their men as Union candidates. The result is that in the lower house of the new legislature there will be a large majority of members of democratic antecedents.

THE REASON FOR IT.—The Madison Journal says:—"The Milwaukee News had had a recent accession, we hear, to its editorial force in the person of Geo. H. Paul, Esq., late of the New York News, a paper that has been suppressed for its secession sympathies." The News was bad enough before this accession to its editorial corps, and is little likely to improve under its new editor.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.—The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad was sold at Cleveland Wednesday, under a foreclosure of its mortgages, by decree of court, and was bid in by Mr. Lanier, of the well known firm of New York bankers, he acting on behalf of a committee. The price paid was two million dollars. The sale was on the same day ratified by the court that issued the decree.

GALE ON LAKE HURON.—During a severe gale on Lake Huron, last Tuesday, the schooners Wm. Nelson, Flying Cloud, M. Mason, Union, J. Gray, C. Harrison, and three others names unknown, all grain laden, bound for the lower lakes, went ashore on Presque Isle—the three former likely to prove a total loss. Four tugs, with steam pumps, will be sent from Detroit to their assistance.

UNIFORMS FOR KENTUCKY.—Sixty thousand dollars' worth of uniforms were forwarded to Kentucky yesterday, under the care of Hon. Andrew Johnson, for the Tennessee and Kentucky regiments in Gen. Thomas' division. There are enough uniforms in the shipment to place the gallant lads in a comfortable condition.

SEVERE CUT.—The New York Tribune thinks that a European recognition of the southern confederacy would raise the price of confederate bonds to fifty or seventy-five cents per bushel!

THE ISSUE OF FORAGE.—The amount of forage issued by the government daily, for use in Washington and vicinity, is 215 tons, and of grain 130 tons.

THE "WAUKESHA COUNTY" and the "FOREST CITY."—both banks of Waukesha county, have made arrangements for the redemption of their circulation at Milwaukee.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST says: The secretary of the treasury has informed the committee of the associated banks here, that he has received an offer from foreign capitalists for one hundred millions of dollars at six and a half per cent. This was in answer to the proposition of the banks in regard to the seven per cent, bonds, which he is authorized to issue under act of congress. What will "Big Thunder," of Printing House Square say to that?

The work on the dome of the capitol at Washington has been renewed, and is pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Some of the new rooms are being frescoed, and in other respects the building is being polished up and put in order for the use of congress.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
The Unfortunate Second Regiment.

EDITORS GAZETTE—In your paper of the 11th inst., there appeared an article so misrepresenting this regiment and its officers, that a few words setting forth our exact position, seems to be demanded, that the minds of those having friends amongst us may be disabused in relation to the misfortunes and peculiar trials to which we have been subjected.

In the article referred to, after quoting from the correspondent of the Madison Journal, in which this regiment is called "unfortunate," you add "we have no disposition to recapitulate its history, it is fully known to its friends." You further remark "if there is a good colonel any where to be found, he should be hunted up, and put at the head of the Wisconsin regiment that it may be saved from ruin."

In reply to these and other unmerited allusions to the regiment, I beg leave to call attention to the fact that the complaints do not originate in this regiment.

Being among the first of the three years' volunteers mustered into the United States service, we now rank among the oldest of the volunteer regiments in the field. Consequently having been exposed to additional fatigues, to the trying march to, and retreat from Bull Run, new regiments from our own and other states, found us with faces burned, with garments torn and soiled, and with evidences of fatigue and disease, incident upon a change of climate, diet and water, to which they had not been subjected, and freely expressed both sympathy and pity for us, which extended so far as to result in naming us the "ragged second," and comparing their appearance with ours until a feeling of jealousy and illnature was excited.

The men composing the second regiment, volunteered not as "summer soldiers" or "sun-shine heroes," but to-day feel prouder of their ragged clothes—of their tarnished equipments—of their flag all smoky, soiled, and dusty as it is—but brought honorably from the battle-field at Bull Run—than of the new uniforms and equipments, since received—or of any unearned advantages they might possibly obtain.

You call us the "unfortunate second," but why are we so? Not in that we were so early in the field—not in that we shared the dangers and defeat of battle, side by side with those whose loss was greater than ours—not in that sickness has visited us with a lighter hand than most other regiments, and death has taken but one through disease, from our number—not in that we have been placed most of the time upon the very advance; and while others have been in comfortable quarters, we have bivouacked in sight of the enemy—for these to the soldier, are posts of honor. And I think if you will re-capitulate the history of the second, you will find that it has rather been fortunate in being placed and kept where it could be more effectively employed in the great cause in which we are enlisted—than many designated as more fortunate, but whose good fortune consisted in being away from danger; an end more easily attained, by remaining members of the home guard.

While we all regret the misfortunes under which our colonial labors, in the loss of voice, rendering it impossible for him to effectively command the regiment, we feel every confidence in his military experience, ability and integrity, and in our lieutenant colonel and major who are especially favored in having officers who not only command the respect and confidence, but the affections of the entire regiment. Unfortunately indeed we should consider ourselves if, from any misrepresentations, we should hear of their removal.

In relation to the Janesville company, I will only say—and I speak by authority—that there has been no time since leaving Madison when they felt in better spirits than at present. General health prevails, we are comfortably clothed and as well provided for as any in the army; and although home and our friends in the far west are very dear to us, we feel no disposition to return until the great object for which we enlisted has been attained. There is no grumbling among the men, but an increasing confidence is daily manifested in the officers, and while we know Capt. Ely has been greatly misrepresented at home, we have faith to believe he will lead his command honorably through this contest.

Since Lieut. McLean's resignation, both Capt. Ely and Lieut. Dodge have been unceasing in their efforts to promote in every way the comfort and advancement of the company, and I am happy to add, these efforts seem to be appreciated.

The second Wisconsin regiment has no cause to consider itself the "unfortunate regiment," and regrets exceedingly that friends at home consider us so. We have no complaints to make, and challenge comparison with other regiments in regard to clothing, camps, food, health, and all the comforts a soldier in the enemy's country could expect, while the general treatment of the officers to the men has been, so far as military discipline would allow, that of friends and brothers.

Adj. General Thomas has ordered that troops transported by railroad through affected parts of the country shall march on foot over bridges where a possibility exists of the cars breaking through. To this there will be an agreement in the contract for transportation, that the trains shall be stopped to permit the troops to alight before crossing the bridge.

Subscribers to the daily or weekly Gazette who wish to pay in Wood, are requested to furnish it now. Any number of new subscriptions can be paid in this way.

NOVEL EXHIBITION.—Messrs. Kelly & Graffam, of Boston, have arrived in this city with their mammoth glass steam engine, which they will have on exhibition at Lappin's Hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. It is made entirely of glass, having three glass boilers, and is run by steam in the ordinary manner. These gentlemen also blow glass and spin it, making birds, baskets, ships, &c. This exhibition will be both amusing and instructive, and all should improve this opportunity of witnessing their beautiful works of art.

The "Rangers" had a gala at the American House, on Thursday evening. Oysters were served at the expense of Lieutenant Hart and Crotsenberg. The best of feeling existed. May success attend the Rangers.

TO CAMP TREDWAY.—The Baptist church can furnish good comfortable seats for one company of soldiers at a time without intruding upon those renting pews, if they arrive at the church just as the bell stops ringing, and they will always be welcome. On behalf of the members of the congregation. J. B. CROSBY, Chairman of Trustees.

LOST.—In this city, yesterday, 23d inst., a lady's port monie containing thirty-nine dollars in bank bills. The finder will confer a lasting favor upon the owner by leaving it at this office. It belongs to a lady whose husband has gone to the war, and she is on her way to her friends in Ohio, and this is her only means by which to proceed on her journey.

DONATION.—Mr. Platt Eyleshimer, the quartermaster of the 13th, acknowledges the donation of a liberal supply of vegetables from Gideon Chapin.

Also, ten fine new quilts from the joint school district of Janesville and Center, by James Carle, chairman of the committee.

ATTACK UPON THE SHERIFF.—An attack was made upon Sheriff Putnam and his assistant last night by two prisoners, who attempted to break jail. There was a desperate fight in which the sheriff and the guard were somewhat severely though not dangerously wounded. The prisoners were, however, overpowered and placed in irons. Their names are Bigelow, charged with stealing cattle, and Ramsom, in for bigamy.

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that E. L. Dimock has been appointed agent for the Liverpool and London Insurance Company. The enormous resources, great success, and permanent character of this company, together with the world-wide reputation of the directors and shareholders in this country for integrity, wealth, and financial ability, entitle it to all confidence.

CAMP TREDWAY, JANEVILLE, Oct. 25, 1861.

To the Citizens of Footville and vicinity:—Gentlemen: For the sword which you have presented me I thank you. It shall be my constant effort to justify, by a faithful discharge of my duty, the partiality which prompted you to present me so fitting a testimonial of your confidence in me, and your attachment to the government of our common country. I indulge the hope that I shall be saved from the omission or commission of any act that shall make you blush at the recollection of this gift, so gratifying to me because it emanates from my nearest friends and neighbors. Let me conclude this brief acknowledgment by the expression of the hope that I shall be fortunate enough to do something toward bringing this war to a close with honor to the government and all who are the friends of good order in this country.

I am very truly your friend,

S. A. COUCH,

Lieut. Union Light Guard.

A CARD.—To the donors of the beautiful sword presented me yesterday, I would through your paper return my heartfelt thanks. I would say, also, that it is my earnest hope that time may prove that the confidence which this gift betokens they repose in me, is not wholly misplaced.

W. M. RUGER.

FIFERS ATTENTION.—Four or five fifers can find a good opportunity of serving their country by reporting themselves at Camp Tredway, in this city.

M. E. V. Wilson, the noted delineator of character, will lecture in this city on Thursday evening, October 29th, at 7 o'clock, at the Court Room, under the servo-magnetic law of spirit control.

Correspondence of the New York Times.
The Recent Habeas Corpus Case in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

For some time past, several of the law-yers of this city have been engaged in prosecuting suits against the various military commanders in this vicinity, for the redress of a variety of grievances, mainly for discharge of minors, and for assaults incident to the enforcement of military discipline. They seemed to have a willing assistant in Judge Merrick, who readily granted orders, citations, and the thousand and one processes by which lawyers obtain fees and annoy people. On Friday, a lawyer named Dennis Foley personally served a writ of habeas corpus upon Gen. Porter, the provost marshal, commanding him to produce the body of one of the soldiers arrested by his guard. As Foley had no right to serve the writ, that being the duty of the United States marshal, Gen. Porter paid no attention to it. Foley went and threatened to have a posse summoned to enforce the writ, when Gen. Porter told him, in that case, he would put the posse in the guard-house, and then commanded Foley to show cause why he himself should not be arrested and confined, for pretending to serve a writ, and for interfering with the military authorities in the discharge of their duties. In default of showing a good and sufficient reason for his action, Foley himself was summarily dealt with.

It is known that Gen. Porter acted throughout under the advice of the state department, and that it is the intention of the government hereafter to arrest any lawyer who seeks to embarrass our officers in the discharge of their duties.

By order of the President the payment of the salary of Judge Merrick has been stopped, and he is himself now under the surveillance of the police. In this connection I feel warranted in saying that the government will not in any way recognize the employment of counsel to procure the release of persons arrested and imprisoned for political offences. The secretary of state will consider it his duty to promptly investigate the case of any person arrested, and to act upon the facts obtained without argument of counsel. He will not permit the discharge of any person who is guilty, even though a hundred lawyers plead his case, and he will not permit the innocent to be subjected to the expense of finding professional advocates who can do them no possible service. Neither will lawyers be admitted to interviews with state prisoners. Admission will be granted to any of the near relatives, but to no others. Imperative orders to this effect have been issued, with the purpose of preventing the hired interference of sharers.

The circuit court of course is in tribulation. On the assembling of the court this morning, Judge Merrick sent a communication to his associates, stating that he was under military surveillance, and expressing the opinion that Provost Marshal Porter, in establishing such surveillance had been guilty of contempt of the circuit court.
